Dear Mr. Higby:

I am in receipt of your Petition for Recall (Cover Sheet) (SEL 350) of Councilor Bob Cullen that was submitted on April 8, 2010. The filing has been reviewed and there are forms that are missing. Therefore, the following corrections will need to be made before the petition is approved for circulation.

Statement

Use this space for statement of reasons for demanding recall. The statement may not exceed 200 words.

Bob Cullen represents the tyrannical city council of old. If he is not removed from city council, Lafayette will continue to experience the same lack of progress and transparency it has for over a decade. His words speak volumes; "I was not elected to uphold the constitution." "I'm going to put a stop to any audience participation during the discussion portion of any motion. If you want to discuss motions, run for office." As he pushed for senseless year round water rationing, he even referred to citizens as "morons who can't figure out if their address is odd or even." Cullen's agenda does not reflect Lafayette citizen desires, nor does he regard his position as a steward of the citizens. He supports: a graffiti wall, a new multi-million dollar reservoir bringing more burden without substantiation, no limit spending, and blocking citizen input. He violates City Charter for his personal agenda. Cullen wears his twelve years as council member as a badge of honor but fails to recognize that his report card is Lafayette's legacy of poor condition and lack of progress, and perhaps some of the highest water bills in the state. Bob Cullen Must Be Removed From Council ASAP.
